The Rev. Joseph Townsend : The Physician's Vade Mecum; Being a Compendium of Nosology and Therapeutics, for the Use of Students before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Physician's Vade Mecum; Being a Compendium of Nosology and Therapeutics, for the Use of Students:

Contemporary early 19th century full calf binding with red leather title label at spine and gilt lettering. A beautifully preserved pocket reference for physicians. Printed by David Carlisle (1771-1835) who apprenticed to Isaiah Thomas at Worcester, Mass.
